The Oil Prince

Synopsis

A car drives over a puddle and muddy water splashes Emily, who was just out for a walk, from head to toe. When she sees the car parked at a gas station moments later, she decides to confront the man leaning against it. The handsome man refuses to apologize, and after hearing what Emily thinks about him, watches her leave. The next day, fate plays a joke on Emily when she finds out that the man is her boss's brother and a prince of a Middle Eastern country. Prince Basil often appears in tabloids because of different scandals and in order to tame his temper, his father sends him to work on a project of drilling a methane well in Dallas. If Basil refuses or is unsuccessful, his financial accounts will be blocked and his title of prince will be revoked. Although their characters clash, Emily and Basil fall in love while working together and Basil's heart melts. When the project that can significantly improve his family business hits a major obstacle, Basil proves that love has tremendous power and shows a side of himself that nobody knew existed.

Customer Reviews

Seriously, SERIOUSLY?!?! How is this called a Romance ? There is nothing Romantic about it!
Ok, I don't need to repeat the plot you've read the description, well for the most part that's it in a Nutshell Basil is a selfish,lazy,self absorbed jerk who for over 75% just can barely be bothered to be anything except argue w/Emily(and believe me their banter is neither witty or interesting) or insult her ,Emily is pretty good at standing up for herself and gets all flutter the two times he kisses her (btw that's the extent of the romance and I don't just mean sex) I mean romantic feelings etc. for the most part) .. They finally seal the deal that's supposed make or break him and for some reason he decides to stay, honestly it not really clear why,he and Emily still argue and antagonize each other like a couple of kids,who've gone from enemies to frienemies to by the end friends but there's never anything overly sexual or even romantic about them,when his mother shows up towards the end to get him to leave and go home and get married he refuses and goes off for some reason and takes Emily on a shopping spree,Sales girl encourages Emily to let her husband buy things for her,they are both quick to say in unison he's not her husband Later Emily jokes as they leave about letting her husband carry her bags... Romantic ? I think not.. Then supposed photos their outing is leaked and it's a huge deal and its demanded he go home and NEVER see Emily again!!Suddenly it's all not w/my Emily and gives up everything to go see her where she basically give a hug and offers her couch and I think lets him be her roommate , NO,LOVE OR ROMANCE OR ANYTHING ROMANTIC OR ANYTHING TO DO W/LOVE... He gets to know and love her family and enjoys not being just a man not a bored selfish Prince ...
